

Directions to the Otay Mesa Border SENTRI Lanes (from the Boulevard 2000)

1. The beginning of the Blvd 2000 is located at Popotla just south of Baja Studios
GPS: 32.285045,
-117.031409. You can access it from the free road (km 33) or from the northbound toll road.

2. Turn onto the Blvd. 2000 and head east for 25 miles.

3. After about 25 miles, you'll see a turn off to the right for "TIJUANA/SAN DIEGO." Take this exit to the right.

4. Drive with precaution around the hairpin turn. This will take you onto Mex 2. Continue for 4 miles on Mex 2.

5. You'll see a large overhead sign directing traffic. Get in the right hand lane to follow the signs to "BLVD BELLAS ARTES/ZONA INDUSTRIAL."

6. Make the right hand turn at the traffic light just after the overhead sign. This will put you onto Calz Alfonso Vidal y Planas

7. Continue a few blocks until you reach Blvd de las Bellas Artes. Make a left hand turn onto Bellas Artes.

8. Continue for a few blocks. Get into the right hand lane.

9. At the intersection for Colina del Sol (just before the overpass), you'll make a soft right hand turn, turning into the SENTRI Lanes which are to the left of the street median and the right of the car wash. (where the white truck is going in the photo)

10. You will see the SENTRI lane sign right above you. Continue down this road to reach the border. You will make a slight turn to the left at the end of this road to curve into the SENTRI lanes.

11. You are now in the SENTRI lanes. The pedestrian lanes will be on your right if you need to make a drop off.
